Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Lessee may keep as pets in his or her Apartment not more than two (in total) domestic dogs, domestic cats, caged birds and fish, provided that such pets do not constitute a health hazard, unsanitary condition or nuisance to any other Lessee, tenant or occupant. No pigeons or other birds or animals shall be fed from the window sills or other public portions of the Building or on the sidewalk or street adjacent to the Building. Each Lessee who keeps (or permits to be kept) any type of pet in such Lessee's Apartment may be required to enter into an agreement with the Lessor, which agreement may set forth such other rules regarding pets as the Lessor shall deem suitable and require the Lessee to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Building, the Lessor, all Lessees and the Managing Agent of the Building from all claims and expenses resulting from the acts or presence of such pet. While Lessees shall be entitled to maintain aquariums, the Lessor may set limits on the size/weight thereof.

All packages, including, without limitation, those containing perishable items, delivered to Apartments by outside personnel must be delivered to the area therefore designated by the Lessor or the Managing Agent. Any damage resulting from misuse of any waterclosets or other apparatus in a Apartment shall be repaired and paid for by the Lessee of such Apartment.
16. No occupant of the Building shall send any employee of the Building or of the Managing Agent out of the Building on any private business. Should the Lessee utilize the services of any employee of the Building within their apartment, such utilization will be after the employee's hours of employment by the Lessor. In such event such services shall be deemed to be performed while such employee was in the employ of the Lessee and not the Lessor.

17. The agents of the Lessor or the Managing Agent, and any contractor or worker authorized by the Lessor or the Managing Agent and accompanied by an agent of the Lessor or the Managing Agent, may enter any room or Apartment at any reasonable hour of the day, on at least one day's prior notice to the Lessee, for the purpose of inspecting such Apartment for the presence of any vermin, insects or other pests and for the purpose of taking such measures as may be necessary to control or exterminate any such vermin, insects or other pests; however, such entry, inspection and extermination shall be done in a reasonable manner so as not to unreasonably interfere with the use of such Apartment for its permitted purposes. Lessor or the Managing Agent shall be entitled to make yearly inspections of all Apartments.
18. The Lessor or the Managing Agent shall retain a pass-key to each Apartment. If any lock is altered or a new lock is installed, the Lessor or the Managing Agent shall be provided with a key thereto immediately upon such alteration or installation. If the Lessee is not personally present to open and permit an entry to his or her Apartment at any time when an entry therein is necessary or permissible under these Rules and Regulations, and the Lessee has not furnished a key to the Lessor or the Managing Agent, then the Lessor or the Managing Agent or their agents on notice to the Lessee (but, except in an emergency, without notice to the Lessee, only when specifically authorized by an officer of the Lessor or an officer of the Managing Agent) may forcibly enter such Apartment without liability for damages or trespass by reason thereof (provided that during such entry reasonable care is given to the Lessee's property).
19. Complaints regarding Building services shall be made in writing to the Lessor or to the Managing Agent. Before contacting any governmental authority regarding issues such as heat, hot water, or conditions within Apartments, Lessees must contact the Managing Agent of Lessor in writing and afford the Lessor a reasonable period of time to investigate and address any alleged condition.

21. Nothing shall be done or kept in any Apartment which would increase the rate of insurance of the Building or contents thereof, without the prior written consent of the Lessor. No waste shall be committed in the common areas of the Building.

22. Lessees shall comply with the laws, ordinances, rules and regulations of the City of New York or any other applicable governmental authority with respect to recycling of waste and refuse, including, without limitation, the separation of trash into "recyclable" and "non-recyclable" materials and/or categories of each of same. The Lessor may also establish other rules and regulations regarding the recycling and disposal of trash. Any costs incurred by the Lessor to enforce the rules and regulations of the Lessor or the requirements of applicable law regarding the recycling of trash against a Lessee, including, without limitation, legal fees, fines and penalties imposed by any government agency, shall be payable by the Lessee as additional maintenance. Any damage caused by the Lessee's negligence shall be at such Lessee's sole cost and expense. All Terraces must be kept clean and free from snow, ice, leaves and debris and all screens and drains must be kept in good repair. The Lessee shall not remove any of the above items by putting them over the Terrace walls, but shall remove said items either through the apartment or through drainage where appropriate. Unless expressly authorized by the Lessor in each case, at least 80% of the floor area of each Apartment (excepting only kitchens, pantries, bathrooms, closets and foyers) must be covered with carpeting, rugs, or equally effective noise-reducing material, all over padding. Should any lessee or occupant have allergies or any other medical condition which prevents them from installing carpeting or rugs, such Lessee shall either install hypoallergenic floor coverings, or at the Lessee's expense, install noise reducing material under the flooring in their apartment and in the sole discretion of Lessor noise reducing materials in the ceiling of any downstairs neighbor in the same line requesting same.
31. Laundry facilities shall be for the exclusive use of the Lessees and their permitted subtenants, and housekeepers. Laundry facilities may not be utilized for profit. The Lessor shall have the right to set the hours when the

All stored items must be properly tagged. Untagged items may be disposed by the Lessor without advance notice. The Lessor reserves the right to make available storage lockers for rental for a fee and to reduce or eliminate any free storage. CERTIFICATE OF RESOLUTION

I, Eric M. Goidel, as Assistant Secretary of 63-61 99th Street Owners, Inc., a Corporation organized and existing under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York, do hereby certify that at a meeting of the Board of Directors of said Corporation duly held on the 12th day of December, 2024, at which a quorum was present and acting throughout, the following Resolution was duly adopted and is now in full force and effect and that said Resolution is not in conflict with any provisions in the Certificate of Incorporation of said Corporation and is in accordance with the provision of its By-laws:

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Corporation owns and operates a building known as and located at 63-61 99th Street, Rego Park, Forest Hills, New York ("Building") for the benefit of its shareholders-lessees; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph "16" of the Corporation's standard form of proprietary lease, the Board of Directors of the Corporation has the right to review and approve all applications by existing shareholders to sell the stock shares and proprietary lease allocated to their apartment to a purchaser or to transfer same to a beneficiary pursuant to a Last Will and Testament or a Trust; and

WHEREAS, as part of the review and approval process, the Board of Directors of the Corporation schedules an interview of all prospective adult occupants as well as runs a criminal background check against all prospective occupants; and

WHEREAS, as part of the application process, prospective purchasers are required to disclose the identities of all individuals who intend to occupy the apartment; and

WHEREAS, from time to time, prospective purchasers are not entirely truthful as to who will be ultimately occupying the apartment; and

WHEREAS, from time to time when an interview is scheduled, not all prospective occupants of the apartment attend the interview; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the Corporation has determined that the proper vetting of all prospective occupants of apartments is critical for the safety and welfare of all residents and for managerial and building staff being aware of just who is entitled to reside in apartments; and

WHEREAS, once a closing occurs, it is occasionally discovered that the individuals disclosed in an application who will be residing in the apartment or the individuals who attended an interview are either not the individuals ultimately residing in the apartment or not all of the individuals residing in the apartment; and

WHEREAS, once a closing of an apartment has occurred, it is impossible for the Corporation to unwind the transaction because the selling shareholder-lessee would be adversely affected; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the Corporation has determined that there must be some penalty to violating prospective purchasers; lest there be no reason for compliance.

NOW, THEREFORE, and in consideration of the foregoing premises, it is hereby resolved as follows:

1. At the time of an application to sell the apartment, the prospective purchaser is required to list all intended occupants of the apartment.
2. Should an interview be scheduled, at the interview the prospective purchaser and any other individuals attending the interview shall be required to sign a document confirming that only those individuals present at the interview ultimately intend to reside in the apartment.
3. Following any closing, should any representations prove to be false, the following penalties shall be applied in the following situations:

a. The individual(s) who was disclosed as the intended occupant(s) move in, but additional occupants move in:

There shall be bans of the ability of the household to be able to be placed on the waiting list for a parking space at the Building for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing.

b. The prospective shareholders do not move into the apartment.

In addition to the penalty set forth in paragraph "3a", the standard sublet surcharge of the Corporation shall be imposed for a period of one (1) year, notwithstanding the fact that the occupant might otherwise have been entitled to occupy the apartment pursuant to the provisions of paragraph "14" of the Corporation's standard form of proprietary lease.

c. An individual not automatically entitled to move into the apartment with the shareholder(s) pursuant to paragraph "15" of the proprietary lease moves into the apartment either with or without the presence of one (1) or more of the shareholders.

The penalty provided for in subparagraph "3a" shall apply plus a sublet surcharge shall be imposed running from the date of closing to the date that the unauthorized occupant vacates the apartment.

4. The provisions of this resolution shall be superseded by any city, state or federal law which would make this policy unlawful. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have the right to be presented with and consider mitigating circumstances.

6. The provisions of this Resolution shall take effect as of December 1, 2024 and shall apply to any and all sales applications submitted and/or interviews conducted after said date.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my name and seal of the corporation 13th day of December, 2024.

Dear Shareholders/Residents:

63-61 99th Street Owners Corp. is hereby giving notice to all residents and shareholders of the Co-Op's smoking policy pursuant to New York City's newly enacted Local Law 147/2017 which policy is in accord with the existing NYC 2002 Smoke Free Air Act (the "Act"). This act was implemented due to the fact that the harmful effects of secondhand smoke caused by indoor smoking are simply too great to ignore.

63-61 99th Street Owners Corp. has been, and will continue to be, in compliance with the Act and be smoke-free in all enclosed areas except within a shareholder's actual dwelling unit and all common outdoor areas except as below. This means that there will be no carrying or use of a lit tobacco product, including e-cigarettes, hookahs and vaporizers (meaning any electronic device that provides a vapor of liquid nicotine and/or other substances to the user as he or she simulates smoking), in any indoor common spaces including but not limited to, porches, vestibules, laundry rooms, garages/parking lots, playgrounds and as may otherwise be prohibited by law. In addition, smoking shall be forbidden on any terraces within the apartments or within 100 feet of any entrance to the building that make up the cooperative.

- The Co-Op's smoking policy always has been, and will continue to be, applicable to all shareholder-tenants, subtenants, invitees of tenants, guests, and any other person on the premises including contractors, maintenance personnel and staff.
- In accordance with Local Law 147, in the event a shareholder shall sublease his/her unit, the shareholder must incorporate this smoking policy into any sublease. Any shareholder selling the shares appurtenant to their unit must incorporate this smoking policy into the contract of sale. The Co-Op notes that Local Law 147 provides for civil penalties levied by the Board of Health in the event these required disclosures are not complied with; specifically, Local Law 147 provides for civil penalties in the event of any violation as follows: First violation: $200 to $400; Second violation, if within 12-months of first violation: $500 to $1000; Third or subsequent violation, within 12-month period: $1000 to $2000
- The Board will be amending the Co-Op's House Rules to incorporate the Co-Op's smoking policy set forth above in accordance with local Law 147 and will distribute to all Shareholders a copy of the Amended House Rules as soon as same are available.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation and compliance with the Co-Op's Local Law 147 smoking policy and NYC 2002 Smoke Free Air Act.

Very truly yours,
Board of Directors

NOTICE DISCLOSING TENANTS' RIGHTS TO REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

Reasonable Accommodations

The New York State Human Rights Law requires housing providers to make reasonable accommodations or modifications to a building or living space to meet the needs of people with disabilities. For example, if you have a physical, mental, or medical impairment, you can ask your housing provider to make the common areas of your building accessible, or to change certain policies to meet your needs.

To request a reasonable accommodation, you should contact your property manager by calling 516-876-4800, or by e-mailing info@kaled.com. You will need to show your housing provider that you have a disability or health problem that interferes with your use of housing, and that your request for accommodation may be necessary to provide you equal access and opportunity to use and enjoy your housing or the amenities and services normally offered by your housing provider.

If you believe that you have been denied a reasonable accommodation for your disability, or that you were denied housing or retaliated against because you requested a reasonable accommodation, you can file a complaint with the New York State Division of Human Rights as described at the end of this notice.

Specifically, if you have a physical, mental, or medical impairment, you can request:

- Permission to change the interior of your housing unit to make it accessible (however, you are required to pay for these modifications, and in the case of a rental your housing provider may require that you restore the unit to its original condition when you move out);
- Changes to your housing provider's rules, policies, practices, or services;
- Changes to common areas of the building so you have an equal opportunity to use the building. The New York State Human Rights Law requires housing providers to pay for reasonable modifications to common use areas.

Examples of reasonable modifications and accommodations that may be requested under the New York State Human Rights Law include:

- If you have a mobility impairment, your housing provider may be required to provide you with a ramp or other reasonable means to permit you to enter and exit the building.
- If your doctor provides documentation that having an animal will assist with your disability, you should be permitted to have the animal in your home despite a "no pet" rule.
- If you need grab bars in your bathroom, you can request permission to install them at your own expense. If your housing was built for first occupancy after March 13, 1991 and the walls need to be reinforced for grab bars, your housing provider must pay for that to be done.
- If you have an impairment that requires a parking space close to your unit, you can request your housing provider to provide you with that parking space, or place you at the top of a waiting list if no adjacent spot is available.
- If you have a visual impairment and require printed notices in an alternative format such as large print font, or need notices to be made available to you electronically, you can request that accommodation from your landlord.

Required Accessibility Standards

All buildings constructed for use after March 13, 1991, are required to meet the following standards:

- Public and common areas must be readily accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities;
- All doors must be sufficiently wide to allow passage by persons in wheelchairs; and
- All multi-family buildings must contain accessible passageways, fixtures, outlets, thermostats, bathrooms, and kitchens.

If you believe that your building does not meet the required accessibility standards, you can file a complaint with the New York State Division of Human Rights.

How to File a Complaint

A complaint must be filed with the Division within one year of the alleged discriminatory act. You can find more information on your rights, and on the procedures for filing a complaint, by going to www.dhr.ny.gov, or by calling 1-888-392-3644 with questions about your rights. You can obtain a complaint form on the website, or one can be e-mailed or mailed to you. You can also call or e-mail a Division regional office. The regional offices are listed on the website.

NEW YORK CITY FIRE DEPARTMENT

2022-2023 Fire and Emergency Preparedness Bulletin
For New York City Apartment Buildings

APARTMENT BUILDING FIRE SAFETY

E-Bike Fire Safety (Fire Safety Hazards Associated with Powered Mobility Devices)

There have been over 140 e-bike and other lithium-ion structural fires in New York City in the first 10½ months of 2022 alone. Six persons died and 140 persons were injured in these fires. Apartments have been severely damaged.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT E-BIKE FIRE SAFETY

E-bikes, scooters, hoverboards and other mobility devices powered by lithium-ion batteries have become popular. Many people store and charge them in their apartments. However, the devices' lithium-ion batteries and chargers present serious fire safety hazards.

Immediately stop charging your e-bike and call 911 if you notice:

- Fire or Smoke
- Battery overheating
- Change in battery shape or color
- Battery leaking
- Strange battery smell
- Battery making odd noises

Powered Mobility Device Fire Safety

BUY only e-bikes or other mobility devices that are CERTIFIED by nationally recognized testing laboratory. Look for symbols such as UL, ETL and CSA.

- WHY? The laboratories test these products to make sure they meet industry standards and are safe to operate under normal circumstances.

USE the original battery, power adapter and power cord supplied with the device, or a manufacturer-recommended and/or a testing laboratory-certified replacement.

- NEVER use unapproved batteries/chargers, even if they are much less expensive.
- WHY? Unapproved batteries or chargers may not be designed to work with an e-bike or e-bike battery.
- RESULT: An unapproved battery may overcharge, overheat and catch on fire.

PLUG the e-bike directly into an electrical wall outlet when charging.

- NEVER charge an e-bike or e-bike battery with an extension cord or power strip.
- WHY? Lithium-ion battery charging requires a lot of electrical current, more than most extension cords and power strips can handle.
- RESULT: The extension cord or power cord can overheat and cause a fire.

CHARGE your e-bike or other device in a safe facility, not in your apartment, if possible. Ask your building or employer if they can provide a safe charging and storage facility.

- WHY? Lithium-ion batteries store a lot of energy and when they overheat they release intense energy. Most apartments are unsprinklered and many furnishings and household items are highly combustible.
- RESULT: A fire in your apartment can be devastating.

MAKE SURE you have a way out of the apartment in the event of fire!

- NEVER charge your e-bike next to the apartment entrance door or any other place where it could prevent your escape.

MONITOR your e-bike or e-bike battery when it is being charged.

- READ the manufacturer's charging and storage instructions and follow them.
- NEVER charge the battery overnight or when you are not in the apartment.
- NEVER charge an e-bike or e-bike battery on or near your bed or couch, or close to drapes, papers or other combustible materials.

(A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published not later than August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent.)

4. IF THIS UNIT IS SUBJECT TO ARTICLE 6-A OF THE REAL PROPERTY LAW, KNOWN AS THE NEW YORK STATE GOOD CAUSE EVICTION LAW, AND THIS NOTICE SERVES TO INFORM A TENANT THAT THE LANDLORD IS NOT RENEWING A LEASE, WHAT IS THE GOOD CAUSE FOR NOT RENEWING THE LEASE? (PLEASE MARK ALL APPLICABLE REASONS)

___A. This unit is exempt from Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law, for the reasons stated in response to question 2, above (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED):

___B. The tenant is receiving this notice in connection with a first lease or a renewal lease, so the landlord does not need to check any of the lawful reasons listed below for not renewing a lease under Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED):

___C. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the unit is sublet and the sublessor seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for their own personal use and occupancy (exemption under subdivision 3 of section 214 of the Real Property Law);

___D. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the possession, use or occupancy of the unit is solely incident to employment and the employment is being or has been lawfully terminated (exemption under subdivision 4 of section 214 of the Real Property Law);

___E. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to pay rent due and owing, and the rent due or owing, or any part thereof, did not result from a rent increase which is unreasonable. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published not later than August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph a of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___F. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is violating a substantial obligation of their tenancy or breaching any of the landlord's rules and regulations governing the premises, other than the obligation to surrender possession of the premises, and the tenant has failed to cure the violation after written notice that the violation must cease within 10 days of receipt of the written notice. For this good cause to apply, the obligation the tenant violated cannot be an obligation that was imposed for the purpose of circumventing the intent of Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law. The landlord's rules or regulations that the tenant has violated also must be reasonable and have been accepted in writing by the tenant or made a part of the lease at the beginning of the lease term (good cause for eviction under paragraph b of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

____G. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is either (a) committing or permitting a nuisance on the unit or the premises; (b) maliciously or grossly negligently causing substantial damage to the unit or the premises; (c) interfering with the landlord's, another tenant's, or occupants of the same or an adjacent building or structure's comfort and safety (good cause for eviction under paragraph c of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

____H. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant's occupancy of the unit violates law and the landlord is subject to civil or criminal penalties for continuing to let the tenant occupy the unit. For this good cause to apply, a state or municipal agency having jurisdiction must have issued an order requiring the tenant to vacate the unit. No tenant shall be removed from possession of a unit on this basis unless the court finds that the cure of the violation of law requires the removal of the tenant and that the landlord did not, through neglect or deliberate action or failure to act, create the condition necessitating the vacate order. If the landlord does not try to cure the conditions causing the violation of the law, the tenant has the right to pay or secure payment, in a manner satisfactory to the court, to cure the violation. Any tenant expenditures to cure the violation shall be applied against rent owed to the landlord. Even if removal of a tenant is absolutely essential to the tenant's health and safety, the tenant shall be entitled to resume possession at such time as the dangerous conditions have been removed. The tenant also retains the right to bring an action for monetary damages against the landlord or to otherwise compel the landlord to comply with all applicable state or municipal housing codes (good cause for eviction under paragraph d of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

____I. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is using or permitting the unit or premises to be used for an illegal purpose (good cause for eviction under paragraph e of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

____J. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the unit for the purposes of making necessary repairs or improvements required by law or for the purposes of showing the premises to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee, or other person with a legitimate interest in the premises (good cause for eviction under paragraph f of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

____K. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for the landlord's personal use and occupancy as the landlord's principal residence, or for the personal use and occupancy as a principal residence by the landlord's spouse, domestic partner, child, stepchild, parent, step-parent, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, parent-in-law, or sibling-in-law. The landlord can only recover the unit for these purposes if there is no other suitable housing accommodation in the building that is available. Under no circumstances can the landlord recover the unit for these purposes if the tenant is (a) 65 years old or older; or (b) a "disabled person" as defined in subdivision 6 of section 211 of the Real Property Law. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to recover possession of a housing accommodation for the uses described herein by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph g of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

____L. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord in good faith seeks to demolish the housing accommodation. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to demolish the housing accommodation by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph h of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

____M. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to withdraw the unit from the housing rental market. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to withdraw the unit from the rental housing market by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph i of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

____N. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to agree to reasonable changes at lease renewal, including reasonable increases in rent, and the landlord gave written notice of the changes to the lease to the tenant at least 30 days, but no more than 90 days, before the current lease expired. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published by August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph j of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

CERTIFICATE OF RESOLUTION

I, Eric M. Goidel, Esq., Assistant Secretary of 63-61 99th Street Owners, Inc. a Corporation organized and existing under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York, do hereby certify that at a meeting of the Board of Directors of said Corporation duly held on the 12th day of December, 2024 at which a quorum was present and acting throughout, the following Resolution was duly adopted and is now in full force and effect and that said Resolution is not in conflict with any provisions in the Certificate of Incorporation of said Corporation and is in accordance with the provision of its By-laws:

W I T N E S S E T H

WHEREAS, the Corporation owns and operates a building known as and located at 63-61 99th Street, Rego Park, Bayside, New York ("Building") for the benefit of its shareholders-lessees; and

WHEREAS, the Corporation attempts to operate on a balanced budget which the Board of Directors adopts annually; and

WHEREAS, maintenance represents most of the Corporation's operating budgeted income and is payable by shareholders of the Corporation based upon the annual budgeted income attributable to maintenance charges divided by the total number of shares issued and outstanding in the Corporation, then multiplied by the number of shares allocated to each apartment; and

WHEREAS, integral to meeting the Corporation's annual budget is each shareholder of the Corporation timely paying their monthly maintenance; and

WHEREAS, from time to time some shareholders have difficulty in paying their maintenance and upon request of a shareholder, the Corporation's managing agent makes arrangements with said shareholder for a deferred payment plan; but

WHEREAS, a number of shareholders of the Corporation chronically pay their maintenance late without attempting to make any arrangements with the managing agent for the Corporation; and

WHEREAS, in such situations, the Corporation is forced to engage counsel to prosecute summary nonpayment proceeding; and with attendant legal costs which are often non-recoverable; and

WHEREAS, this group of chronically nonpaying shareholders significantly impacts the Corporation's annual operating plans, and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the Corporation wishes to adopt a policy to deal with chronically late paying or nonpaying shareholders;

NOW, THEREFORE in consideration of the foregoing, it is hereby

RESOLVED, that the Corporation hereby adopts the: 63-61 99th Street Owners, Inc. Chronic Late Payment/Nonpayment Objectionable Conduct Policy:

1. Maintenance is due and payable on the first of each month.
2. If maintenance payments are not received by the management office by the 10th of the month for which due they will be deemed late and are subject to the imposition of the Corporation's then prevailing late charge.
3. The management office will send a notice to all shareholders who are two (2) months delinquent in the timely payment of maintenance.
4. Accounts of shareholders who are in default of the payment of maintenance and/or ancillary charges equal to or exceeding two (2) months then prevailing maintenance charges will be turned over to the Corporation's counsel for the prosecution of nonpayment summary proceedings. Such proceedings will only be settled by either payment in full or a stipulation providing for an installment plan for the payment of the sums due, inclusive of all late charges, legal fees and other expenses of the Corporation.
5. The Board of Directors of the Corporation has determined that any shareholder who is either:
 - i. Two (2) or more months in arrears in the payment of maintenance more than three (3) times in any twelve (12) month period; or

 - iii. During their entire tenure as a shareholder of the Corporation has five (5) nonpayment summary proceedings commenced against them regardless of time period, shall be guilty of objectionable conduct. Pursuant to paragraph 31(e) of the Corporation's proprietary lease it being intended by the Board of Directors of the Corporation that a parking space is a privilege and not a right and only to be accorded to shareholders in good standing. In such event, a shareholder who violates (i), (ii), or (iii) of this paragraph 5 shall not be subject to any further nonpayment proceedings. Instead, the Corporation shall direct its attorneys to serve a Notice of Termination of Tenancy upon the shareholder (without the opportunity to cure) based upon a finding of objectionable conduct). Thereafter, at the election of the Corporation the Corporation's attorneys shall either prosecute a Civil Court holdover summary proceeding, a Supreme Court declaratory judgment action or a nonjudicial foreclosure proceeding. Additionally, a shareholder whose conduct has resulted in the invocation of this paragraph 5, who rents a parking space in the garage shall be subject to a loss of said parking privileges.

6. This policy shall take effect on January 1, 2025. All shareholders of record of the Corporation as of January 1, 2025 shall be treated as if they are starting with no late payment history or past or pending nonpayment proceedings regardless of their payment history with the Corporation.

Such treatment however shall be for the purposes of determining a violation under subparagraphs i, ii, or iii of paragraph 5 and shall not be construed so as to abrogate any right of the Corporation to continue any pending summary nonpayment proceedings or to collect any past due maintenance, parking fees, ancillary charges, assessments, late charges, legal fees, disbursements and court costs associated with any delinquent shareholder account.
