Bicycles and similar vehicles are prohibited. Children under sixteen must be accompanied by an adult and should generally conform to quiet adult behavior. Chairs may be used on the porch only, but not left there.
- (16) The squash court is not operational and may not be used by residents. It is in use for the Corporation for purposes of storage.
- (17) No smoking in common areas including the basement.
- (18) Residents shall use the available laundry facilities only upon such days during such hours as may be designated and posted by the Lessor.

III. DELIVERIES AND VISITORS

- (19) When the front door is in attendance, all guests, visitors and trades persons will be stopped at the front door and announced on the intercom system. No visitors will be admitted unless resident approval is given.
- 19a. When the front door is unattended, the outside intercom will be used. Always ask for verbal and visual identification before allowing entry to the building, even if someone is expected. Do not respond to the buzzer simply by buzzing back. Compliance in this regard is critical for the protection of every resident.
- (20) Large deliveries of packages, groceries, laundry, etc., must be through the basement service entrance. However, restaurant food, newspapers and small packages may be delivered through the front door provided rule (19) above is observed.
- 20a. Deliveries cannot be accepted unless the resident is at home or has made prior arrangements with building staff or a neighbor. The Corporation does not assume responsibility for any deliveries
- 20b. Carts are available in the basement for the transport of groceries and luggage to apartments. Carts in the basement should be returned to the basement after being used. They are the property of the building.
- (21) Furniture and large appliance deliveries etc., should be made Monday through Friday between 8am and 6pm only unless special permission is asked for and granted. The Superintendent must be notified of such deliveries at least the day before, so that the elevators can be padded for protection. Staff on duty will supervise the delivery and inspect the elevator and public hallways for damage after the delivery. Shareholders are responsible for damage to the building caused by a delivery. Time in and time out of persons making a delivery will be recorded in the log book in the basement.

- (22) Trunks and heavy baggage shall be taken in or out of the building only through the basement service entrance.
- (23) Contractors, plumbers, electricians, painters etc., coming to perform work must use the basement entrance. All such visitors must sign their entry into and exit from the building in the log book. The Superintendent must be given at least 24 hour advance notice of such visits.
- (24) Commercial flyers and circulars are not to be distributed throughout the building but rather should be left for residents to pick up, either just inside or just outside the front door. Persons wishing to distribute these flyers frequently buzz any apartment to gain access and sometimes give a false identity such as postman. To the best of your ability do not provide access.

24a. Residents should on no account allow strangers to enter and roam the building at will. This may sometimes be embarrassing but it is a security measure especially important while there is not 24-hour doorman service.

- (25) Residents are required to inform Management in writing of the names of any non residents whom they have provided with building or apartment keys. This measure is to ensure proper security for the building.
- (26) Moving in or out of the building shall be done between 8am and 6pm on weekdays. The Superintendent must be notified by entry in the log book 48 hours in advance so that the elevator can be prepared for the move. Moving will not be permitted on weekends, legal holidays or high holy days unless specifically authorized in advance by the Lessor.

26a. A refundable deposit will be required in advance of any move, in or out. This deposit may be used to offset any damage that may occur or any unusual labor requirements such as overtime. Nevertheless, the party making the move, whether purchaser, seller, shareholder or tenant, is responsible for all such costs not limited to the deposit amount. The Superintendent will inspect for damage after the move.

26b. Hoisting of furniture or other large objects on the exterior of the building is prohibited, except with prior written consent of the Managing Agent.

DOORS, WINDOWS, TERRACES AND EXTERIORS

- (27) No article shall be hung or shaken from the doors, windows, terraces or balconies, or placed upon the exterior window sills of the building.
- (28) No exterior shades, awnings, window guards, ventilators, fans or air conditioning devices shall be used in and about the building except those expressly approved by the Managing Agent as to quality, size, placement and material. No fixtures shall be placed in or on the exterior building walls, or outside or protruding from the windows.
- (29) No wires of any kind may be run along or from the exterior of the building, or across any common area. In particular, this applies to telephone lines. No radio or television aerial shall be attached to or hung from the exterior of the building.
- (30) No sign, notice or advertisement shall be inscribed or exposed on or at any window or other part of the building, except on bulletin boards or as shall have been approved in writing by the Lessor or the Managing Agent.
- (31) Window guards, of standard and approved design, must be installed in each window of an apartment that is a residence of a child under the age of ten. New York City requires the Corporation to comply with this law. Installation and materials are provided by the Lessor.
- (32) Residents whose apartments have access to individual terraces and patios are responsible for upkeep and maintenance of these areas. Terraces and patios are to be kept clean, orderly and free from debris at all times. There should be no mattresses, clothing lines or out unsightly obstructions on the terraces. Cooking on the terraces is prohibited.
- (33) Any plantings on terraces and balconies shall be in good taste and generally accord with the quality and tone of appearance of the building. Moreover, any such plantings and their containers shall be maintained by the Lessee in a condition that poses no danger and does not lead to damage to the building
- (34) Lessees shall keep apartment windows clean.

IV. APARTMENT INTERIORS

- (35) No resident shall make or permit any disturbing noises in the building or do or permit anything to be done therein which will interfere with the rights, comfort or convenience of other residents. No resident shall play upon, or suffer to be played upon, any musical instrument, or permit to be operated any phonograph, radio or television between the hours of 11pm and the following 8am, if the same shall disturb or annoy the occupants of the building.
- (36) Water closets, toilets, sinks, tubs and showers shall not be used for any purpose other than those for which they were constructed. The cost of repairing any damage resulting from misuse of any water apparatus shall be paid for by the Lessee in whose apartment shall have been caused. Sweepings, rubbish, rags or other articles shall not be thrown in the water closets or otherwise disposed of through the plumbing system. Water closets are not to be used for garbage disposal. The sink is for maintenance purposes only.
- (37) Unless expressly authorized by the Board of Directors in each case, the floors of each apartment must be covered with rugs or carpeting or equally effective noise reducing material to the extent of at least 80% of the floor area of each room excluding only kitchens, pantries, bathrooms, and closets.
- (38) No group tour or exhibition of any apartment or its contents shall be conducted, nor shall any auction sale or open house be held in any apartment without the consent of the Managing Agent.
- (39) The Managing Agent or Superintendent will inspect each apartment at least once annually by appointment, or more often if deemed necessary by the Board of Directors, to check on the condition of the building and mechanical systems and to monitor compliance with the House Rules.
- (40) It is the policy of the Corporation to maintain the building in pest free condition. To that end, and generally to control vermin, insects and other pests, the Corporation provides exterminator service on a regular periodic basis. Residents are required to provide apartment access for the exterminator. Residents are advised in advance of the exterminator schedule in the building. Experience has shown that the absence of pests in an apartment is not sufficient reason for dispensing with fumigation or some other effective pest control measure in that apartment if the building as a whole is to be kept uninfested.

- (41) Smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors, required by law, have been installed in every apartment. Maintenance is the responsibility of each apartment resident. Test monthly by pressing button which will cause alarm to sound. Change battery annually or more frequently if necessary. Only functioning detectors will give warning of danger.
- (42) The Superintendent must have access to all apartments in the event of emergency. To this end, residents must leave a complete set of keys for apartment access with the Superintendent who keeps them in a coded system. Failure to provide keys is not acceptable to the Corporation, is potentially dangerous in an emergency and may subject the resident to additional liability because of damage caused while gaining access to the apartment.
- (43) Lessee may not alter, remodel, renovate, add to or otherwise engage in construction in or about his or her apartment without prior written consent of the Lessor. Likewise, Lessee shall not make any attachments to the plumbing lines or add to the electrical system without prior written approval of the Lessor. Guidelines for obtaining Lessor approval will be provided upon request. To grant approval, the Board of Directors will impose any conditions deemed necessary or advisable to maintain the standard and good condition of the building. Licensed and insured contractors are required.
- (44) Construction, repair, remodeling, renovation, alteration or additions to a Lessee's apartment shall be confined to the hours of 8am and 6pm on weekdays. No such work may be performed on Saturday, Sunday, any legal holiday or high holy days, unless specifically approved in advance by the Lessor.
- 44a. Painting is an exception in that it may be performed on any day of the week provided it is not combined with other work of a noisy nature.
- (45) No clothes washing machines will be permitted to be installed into any apartments.

V. SUBLETTING

- (46). House Rule 46 was amended on April 16, 2013 by the Board of Directors of 6810 Equities, Inc. at a meeting held on April 16, 2013. Shareholders were notified.

Effective April 16, 2013:

Sublets will now be allowed with the following rules and limitations:

46a. Those wishing to sublet their apartment must be a shareholder of 6810 Equities, Inc. for at least two (2) years.

46.b. Shareholders will only be allowed to sublet one time, with a maximum term of two consecutive years.

46c. All sublease must be a minimum term of one (1) year.

46d. Shareholders seeking to sublet their apartment must be granted approval by the Board of directors of 6810 Equities, Inc. by submitting a completed sublet application package. The proposed sub-tenant must also be interviewed by the Board.

See House Rule 53 regarding short-term subletting.

VI. GARBAGE

(47) This building is equipped with trash compactors located in the basement. Compactor closets, equipped with chutes to the basement compactor, are located on each floor. Signs with instructions on the proper use of the compactor have been placed on the wall above each chute. Fire extinguishers in case of emergency have been installed in every compactor closet.

47a. Garbage should be well drained and securely wrapped and tied in plastic bags. Garbage bags should not be allowed to drip on the landings. Bags should be placed in the compactor chutes and not be left in the chute openings nor in the chute closets, nor in the hallways.

47b. Glass, metal, metal foil and plastic objects shall not be placed in the chutes but put in the recycling bins. Newspapers, magazines, books and corrugated cardboard should be stacked in the compactor chute closets as indicated. Bottles and cans should be rinsed before disposal. Recycling of these materials is now required by State law.

47c. Apart from items for recycling, no garbage should be left in the compactor chute closets. Moreover, no garbage, cigarette butts or chewing gum should be left on the stairways, landings or any other public area. Residents should clean up any garbage they accidentally drop in public areas.

47d. Vacuum cleaner bags should not be emptied directly into the compactor chutes but should be securely wrapped in an outer plastic bag before disposal down the chute.

47e. It is unlawful to throw the following items down the compactor chutes: unwrapped carpet sweepings, naphthalene camphor balls, floor scrapings, oil soaked rags, empty paint or aerosol cans, inflammable, explosive or noxious substances and lighted cigarette or cigar stubs. Inflammable, explosive and noxious substances, as well as empty paint cans, should be brought to the basement for disposal by building staff.

47f. Cartons, boxes, crates or large items for disposal shall be taken directly to the basement and left in the designated area near the compactor. The same shall be done by residents with any garbage item that is not suitable for recycling nor for disposal down the chute in a plastic bag.

47g. Cat litter should be disposed of in the basement receptacles, not thrown down the chute.

VII. PETS

- (48) No bird or animal or pet of any kind shall be kept or harbored in the building unless expressly permitted in each instance by the Lessor in writing. Such permission shall be revocable by the Lessor. In no event shall dogs be permitted on elevators or in any of the public portions of the building unless carried or on leash. Dogs are not allowed in the laundry room.

48a. No pet should be permitted to evacuate or urinate in the common areas, nor in the gardens and grassy areas surrounding the building, nor in the entrance path. With regard to the sidewalks and curbs surrounding the property, residents should abide by the "pooper scooper" law.

In addition, with respect to building cleanliness, maintenance and sanitary considerations, dog owners are not permitted to allow their pets access to the backyard, porch area or, the grassy areas surrounding the building. Also see HR 48b.

48b. Dogs are part of the interview process and must attend the interview. Dogs may only enter and exit the premises via the building basement. The Lexington House does not in principle allow dogs. Dogs are only allowed on a case by case basis provided the standard of the building is not adversely affected.

48c. No pigeons or other birds or animals shall be fed from window sills, terraces, balconies or in the yard, gardens, common areas or street sidewalks adjacent to the building.

48d. Damage to the Corporation caused by a pet is the responsibility of the pet owner.

Also see House Rule # 54 regarding registered service dogs.

VIII. STORAGE BINS

- (49) Highly inflammable, noxious or explosive materials shall not be kept in basement storage bins. Contents and arrangement of storage bins must conform to the Fire Department code. Penalties for violation of that code are the shareholder's responsibility. The Corporation is not responsible for loss or damage for items placed in storage bins.
- (50) Storage bins may not be sublet or assigned by Lessees. Storage bins are assigned by the Lessor and may be reassigned. A monthly charge is levied on any Lessee having more than one storage bin.
- (51) The Corporation has the right to inspect the bins once a year. If the bin is over stuffed, the shareholder will be notified to remove items from the bin. The inspection will be done by a staff member and the results reported to the Board.

IX. OTHER HOUSE RULES AND AMENDMENTS

- (52) In addition to the prohibition of washing machines in House Rule 45, those apartments with existing as of November 1, 2017 permitted to remain. However, washing machines cannot be replaced if removed.

52a. When the apartment is sold, the washing machine must be removed by the selling shareholder prior to closing and must be certified by building management. Closing will be delayed if the washing machine is not removed.

- (53) Short-term rentals through Air BNB and similar services are prohibited in their entirety. There are no exceptions.
- (54) Dogs permitted subject to House Rule 48 must enter and /or exit the building through the basement service door.

54a. Service dogs are exempt from this rule. Service dog owners must submit a copy of their pet's registration to Building management. Service dogs can be registered through this site US Dog Registry - Service Dog Registration and Supplies

(55) Air conditioners: With concern for safety House Rules are amended May 31, 2018 that prohibit air conditioner installation in windows that are over terraces and balconies.

55a. Residents who have air conditioners in place prior to the new rule effective date are grandfathered and do not have to remove the current units. However, upon sale of the apartment the new shareholder will be subject to the prohibition.

55b. Apartments 2C, 2D, 2E and 2F are exempt as they have balconies/terraces and are allowed, at their discretion and risk, to install air conditioning units in the door transoms.

(56) No bicycle, e-bike, scooter, or any other mobility device powered by a lithiumion battery shall be permitted in any common area, apartment, storage area, basement, terrace, balcony, or any other space within the building or any adjoining area. This rule shall not apply to any mobility device used in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA")

Should any such device be identified within any of the spaces enumerated in this Rule, the Corporation shall demand removal and immediate compliance.

In the event of a violation of this rule, and a fire or other casualty occurs, the Lessee or occupant shall indemnify and hold harmless the Corporation or any damaged parties for any and all losses resulting from such violation.

Furthermore, the Corporation reserves the right to all other enforcement mechanisms, including the Termination of the Proprietary Lease and eviction proceedings.

(57) Fireplace Cleaning and Inspection Rule 57– Effective 2025

Beginning in calendar year 2025, all shareholders with operable fireplaces shall be required to have their fireplace(s) professionally cleaned and inspected, at a minimum, once every ten (10) years. Such cleaning and inspection must be completed between September 1 and December 31 of the applicable calendar year. Shareholders with inoperable fireplaces will be exempt from participating.

Building Management will coordinate a bulk cleaning and inspection program at a preferred group rate during the designated period. Shareholders may elect to participate in this program or may arrange the cleaning at their own cost with a reputable and properly licensed company, provided that the vendor's credentials and proof of insurance are submitted to Management for approval in advance of the cleaning.

Proof of completion (including the contractor's report or invoice) must be provided to Management no later than December 31 of the applicable year.

Should any shareholder fail to comply with this rule, the Corporation reserves the right to arrange the required cleaning on the shareholder's behalf, and the cost, together with any applicable administrative, penalty fees, or service fees, shall be charged to the shareholder's account.

Amend House Rules Section III January 2021

MOVE IN AND DELIVERY DEPOSIT

At this time we would like to remind all residents that a $1,000.00 refundable deposit is required for all moves in/out of the building. In addition, a refundable $250.00 deposit is required for any large item delivery. A large item would be furniture or appliances, or anything else that requires a delivery to your apartment, not a package that is to be left in the lobby. Whether or not someone is actually moving in or out, the intent of the rule is to protect the building from any damage. Please remember to notify the Super or Management whenever such moves or deliveries are scheduled, so that the elevators can be padded properly.

NOTICE DISCLOSING TENANTS' RIGHTS TO REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

Reasonable Accommodations

The New York State Human Rights Law requires housing providers to make reasonable accommodations or modifications to a building or living space to meet the needs of people with disabilities. For example, if you have a physical, mental, or medical impairment, you can ask your housing provider to make the common areas of your building accessible, or to change certain policies to meet your needs.

To request a reasonable accommodation, you should contact your property manager by calling 516-876-4800, or by e-mailing info@kaled.com. You will need to show your housing provider that you have a disability or health problem that interferes with your use of housing, and that your request for accommodation may be necessary to provide you equal access and opportunity to use and enjoy your housing or the amenities and services normally offered by your housing provider.

If you believe that you have been denied a reasonable accommodation for your disability, or that you were denied housing or retaliated against because you requested a reasonable accommodation, you can file a complaint with the New York State Division of Human Rights as described at the end of this notice.

Specifically, if you have a physical, mental, or medical impairment, you can request:

- Permission to change the interior of your housing unit to make it accessible (however, you are required to pay for these modifications, and in the case of a rental your housing provider may require that you restore the unit to its original condition when you move out);
- Changes to your housing provider's rules, policies, practices, or services;
- Changes to common areas of the building so you have an equal opportunity to use the building. The New York State Human Rights Law requires housing providers to pay for reasonable modifications to common use areas.

Examples of reasonable modifications and accommodations that may be requested under the New York State Human Rights Law include:

- If you have a mobility impairment, your housing provider may be required to provide you with a ramp or other reasonable means to permit you to enter and exit the building.
- If your doctor provides documentation that having an animal will assist with your disability, you should be permitted to have the animal in your home despite a "no pet" rule.
- If you need grab bars in your bathroom, you can request permission to install them at your own expense. If your housing was built for first occupancy after March 13, 1991 and the walls need to be reinforced for grab bars, your housing provider must pay for that to be done.
- If you have an impairment that requires a parking space close to your unit, you can request your housing provider to provide you with that parking space, or place you at the top of a waiting list if no adjacent spot is available.
- If you have a visual impairment and require printed notices in an alternative format such as large print font, or need notices to be made available to you electronically, you can request that accommodation from your landlord.

Required Accessibility Standards

All buildings constructed for use after March 13, 1991, are required to meet the following standards:

- Public and common areas must be readily accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities;
- All doors must be sufficiently wide to allow passage by persons in wheelchairs; and
- All multi-family buildings must contain accessible passageways, fixtures, outlets, thermostats, bathrooms, and kitchens.

If you believe that your building does not meet the required accessibility standards, you can file a complaint with the New York State Division of Human Rights.

How to File a Complaint

A complaint must be filed with the Division within one year of the alleged discriminatory act. You can find more information on your rights, and on the procedures for filing a complaint, by going to www.dhr.ny.gov, or by calling 1-888-392-3644 with questions about your rights. You can obtain a complaint form on the website, or one can be e-mailed or mailed to you. You can also call or e-mail a Division regional office. The regional offices are listed on the website.

APARTMENT BUILDING FIRE SAFETY

E-Bike Fire Safety (Fire Safety Hazards Associated with Powered Mobility Devices)

There have been over 140 e-bike and other lithium-ion structural fires in New York City in the first 10½ months of 2022 alone. Six persons died and 140 persons were injured in these fires. Apartments have been severely damaged.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT E-BIKE FIRE SAFETY

E-bikes, scooters, hoverboards and other mobility devices powered by lithium-ion batteries have become popular. Many people store and charge them in their apartments. However, the devices' lithium-ion batteries and chargers present serious fire safety hazards.

Immediately stop charging your e-bike and call 911 if you notice:

- Fire or Smoke
- Battery overheating
- Change in battery shape or color
- Battery leaking
- Strange battery smell
- Battery making odd noises

Powered Mobility Device Fire Safety

BUY only e-bikes or other mobility devices that are CERTIFIED by nationally recognized testing laboratory. Look for symbols such as UL, ETL and CSA.

- WHY? The laboratories test these products to make sure they meet industry standards and are safe to operate under normal circumstances.

USE the original battery, power adapter and power cord supplied with the device, or a manufacturer-recommended and/or a testing laboratory-certified replacement.

- NEVER use unapproved batteries/chargers, even if they are much less expensive.
- WHY? Unapproved batteries or chargers may not be designed to work with an e-bike or e-bike battery.
- RESULT: An unapproved battery may overcharge, overheat and catch on fire.

PLUG the e-bike directly into an electrical wall outlet when charging.

- NEVER charge an e-bike or e-bike battery with an extension cord or power strip.
- WHY? Lithium-ion battery charging requires a lot of electrical current, more than most extension cords and power strips can handle.
- RESULT: The extension cord or power cord can overheat and cause a fire.

CHARGE your e-bike or other device in a safe facility, not in your apartment, if possible. Ask your building or employer if they can provide a safe charging and storage facility.

- WHY? Lithium-ion batteries store a lot of energy and when they overheat they release intense energy. Most apartments are unsprinklered and many furnishings and household items are highly combustible.
- RESULT: A fire in your apartment can be devastating.

MAKE SURE you have a way out of the apartment in the event of fire!

- NEVER charge your e-bike next to the apartment entrance door or any other place where it could prevent your escape.

MONITOR your e-bike or e-bike battery when it is being charged.

- READ the manufacturer's charging and storage instructions and follow them.
- NEVER charge the battery overnight or when you are not in the apartment.
- NEVER charge an e-bike or e-bike battery on or near your bed or couch, or close to drapes, papers or other combustible materials.

Simple Steps To Protect Your Family From Lead Hazards

If you think your home has high levels of lead:

- ◆ Get your young children tested for lead, even if they seem healthy.
- ◆ Wash children's hands, bottles, pacifiers, and toys often.
- ◆ Make sure children eat healthy, low-fat foods.
- ◆ Get your home checked for lead hazards.
- ◆ Regularly clean floors, window sills, and other surfaces.
- ◆ Wipe soil off shoes before entering house.
- ◆ Talk to your landlord about fixing surfaces with peeling or chipping paint.
- ◆ Take precautions to avoid exposure to lead dust when remodeling or renovating (call 1-800-424-LEAD for guidelines).
- ◆ Don't use a belt-sander, propane torch, dry scraper, or dry sandpaper on painted surfaces that may contain lead.
- ◆ Don't try to remove lead-based paint yourself.

Checking Your Home for Lead Hazards

Just knowing that a home has lead-based paint may not tell you if there is a hazard.

- You can get your home checked for lead hazards in one of two ways, or both:
- ◆ A paint inspection tells you the lead content of every painted surface in your home. It won't tell you whether the paint is a hazard or how you should deal with it.
  - ◆ A risk assessment tells you if there are any sources of serious lead exposure (such as peeling paint and lead dust). It also tells you what actions to take to address these hazards.

Have qualified professionals do the work. The federal government is writing standards for inspectors and risk assessors. Some states might already have standards in place. Call your state agency for help with locating qualified professionals in your area (see page 12).

- Trained professionals use a range of methods when checking your home, including:
- ◆ Visual inspection of paint condition and location.
  - ◆ Lab tests of paint samples.
  - ◆ Surface dust tests.
  - ◆ A portable x-ray fluorescence machine.

Home test kits for lead are available, but recent studies suggest that they are not always accurate. Consumers should not rely on these tests before doing renovations or to assure safety.

What You Can Do Now To Protect Your Family

If you suspect that your house has lead hazards, you can take some immediate steps to reduce your family's risk:

- ◆ If you rent, notify your landlord of peeling or chipping paint.
- ◆ Clean up paint chips immediately.
- ◆ Clean floors, window frames, window sills, and other surfaces weekly. Use a mop or sponge with warm water and a general all-purpose cleaner or a cleaner made specifically for lead. REMEMBER: NEVER MIX AMMONIA AND BLEACH PRODUCTS TOGETHER SINCE THEY CAN FORM A DANGEROUS GAS.
- ◆ Thoroughly rinse sponges and mop heads after cleaning dirty or dusty areas.
- ◆ Wash children's hands often, especially before they eat and before nap time and bed time.
- ◆ Keep play areas clean. Wash bottles, pacifiers, toys, and stuffed animals regularly.
- ◆ Keep children from chewing window sills or other painted surfaces.
- ◆ Clean or remove shoes before entering your home to avoid tracking in lead from soil.
- ◆ Make sure children eat nutritious, low-fat meals high in iron and calcium, such as spinach and low-fat dairy products. Children with good diets absorb less lead.

How To Significantly Reduce Lead Hazards

Removing lead improperly can increase the hazard to your family by spreading even more lead dust around the house.

Always use a professional who is trained to remove lead hazards safely.

In addition to day-to-day cleaning and good nutrition:

- ◆ You can temporarily reduce lead hazards by taking actions such as repairing damaged painted surfaces and planting grass to cover soil with high lead levels. These actions (called "interim controls") are not permanent solutions and will need ongoing attention.
- ◆ To permanently remove lead hazards, you must hire a lead "abatement" contractor. Abatement (or permanent hazard elimination) methods include removing, sealing, or enclosing lead-based paint with special materials. Just painting over the hazard with regular paint is not enough.

Always hire a person with special training for correcting lead problems—someone who knows how to do this work safely and has the proper equipment to clean up thoroughly. If possible, hire a certified lead abatement contractor. Certified contractors will employ qualified workers and follow strict safety rules as set by their state or by the federal government.

Call your state agency (see page 12) for help with locating qualified contractors in your area and to see if financial assistance is available.

Where Lead Is Likely To Be a Hazard

Lead-based paint that is in good condition is usually not a hazard.

Peeling, chipping, chalking, or cracking lead-based paint is a hazard and needs immediate attention.

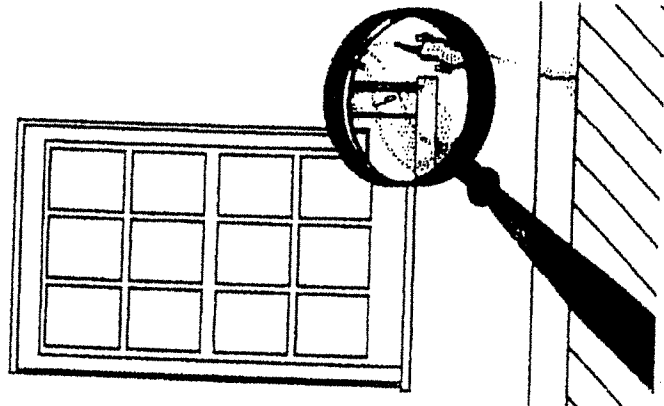

Lead-based paint may also be a hazard when found on surfaces that children can chew or that get a lot of wear-and-tear. These areas include:

- ◆ Windows and window sills.
- ◆ Doors and door frames.
- ◆ Stairs, railings, and banisters.
- ◆ Porches and fences.

Lead dust can form when lead-based paint is dry scraped, dry sanded, or heated. Dust also forms when painted surfaces bump or rub together. Lead chips and dust can get on surfaces and objects that people touch. Settled lead dust can reenter the air when people vacuum, sweep, or walk through it.

Lead in soil can be a hazard when children play in bare soil or when people bring soil into the house on their shoes. Call your state agency (see page 12) to find out about soil testing for lead.

Lead from paint chips, which you can see, and lead dust, which you can't always see, can both be serious hazards

Checking Your Family for Lead

Get your children tested if you think your home has high levels of lead.

A simple blood test can detect high levels of lead. Blood tests are important for:

- ◆ Children who are 6 months to 1 year old (6 months if you live in an older home with cracking or peeling paint).
- ◆ Family members that you think might have high levels of lead.

If your child is older than 1 year, talk to your doctor about whether your child needs testing.

Your doctor or health center can do blood tests. They are inexpensive and sometimes free. Your doctor will explain what the test results mean. Treatment can range from changes in your diet to medication or a hospital stay.

Where Lead-Based Paint Is Found

In general, the older your home, the more likely it has lead-based paint.

Many homes built before 1978 have lead-based paint. The federal government banned lead-based paint from housing in 1978. Some states stopped its use even earlier. Lead can be found:

- ◆ In homes in the city, country, or suburbs.
- ◆ In apartments, single-family homes, and both private and public housing.
- ◆ Inside and outside of the house.
- ◆ In soil around a home. (Soil can pick up lead from exterior paint, or other sources such as past use of leaded gas in cars.)

Remodeling or Renovating a Home With Lead-Based Paint

Take precautions before you begin remodeling or renovations that disturb painted surfaces (such as scraping off paint or tearing out walls):

- ◆ Have the area tested for lead-based paint.
- ◆ Do not use a dry scraper, belt-sander, propane torch, or heat gun to remove lead-based paint. These actions create large amounts of lead dust and fumes. Lead dust can remain in your home long after the work is done.
- ◆ Temporarily move your family (especially children and pregnant women) out of the apartment or house until the work is done and the area is properly cleaned. If you can't move your family, at least completely seal off the work area.

If not conducted properly, certain types of renovations can release lead from paint and dust into the air.

- ◆ Follow other safety measures to reduce lead hazards. You can find out about other safety measures by calling 1-800-424-LEAD. Ask for the brochure "Reducing Lead Hazards When Remodeling Your Home." This brochure explains what to do before, during, and after renovations.

If you have already completed renovations or remodeling that could have released lead-based paint or dust, get your young children tested and follow the steps outlined on page 7 of this brochure.

Other Sources of Lead

- ◆ Drinking water. Your home might have plumbing with lead or lead solder. Call your local health department or water supplier to find out about testing your water. You cannot see, smell, or taste lead, and boiling your water will not get rid of lead. If you think your plumbing might have lead in it:
  - Use only cold water for drinking and cooking.
  - Run water for 15 to 30 seconds before drinking it, especially if you have not used your water for a few hours.

While paint, dust, and soil are the most common lead hazards, other lead sources also exist.

- ◆ The job. If you work with lead, you could bring it home on your hands or clothes. Shower and change clothes before coming home. Launder your clothes separately from the rest of your family's.

- ◆ Old painted toys and furniture.
- ◆ Food and liquids stored in lead crystal or lead-glazed pottery or porcelain.

- ◆ Lead smelters or other industries that release lead into the air.
- ◆ Hobbies that use lead, such as making pottery or stained glass, or refinishing furniture.
- ◆ Folk remedies that contain lead, such as "greta" and "azarcon" used to treat an upset stomach.

Lead's Effects

If not detected early, children with high levels of lead in their bodies can suffer from:

- ◆ Damage to the brain and nervous system
- ◆ Behavior and learning problems (such as hyperactivity)
- ◆ Slowed growth
- ◆ Hearing problems
- ◆ Headaches

Lead is also harmful to adults. Adults can suffer from:

- ◆ Difficulties during pregnancy
- ◆ Other reproductive problems (in both men and women)
- ◆ High blood pressure
- ◆ Digestive problems
- ◆ Nerve disorders
- ◆ Memory and concentration problems
- ◆ Muscle and joint pain

Lead affects the body in many ways.

Lead Gets in the Body in Many Ways

1 out of every 11 children in the United States has dangerous levels of lead in the blood-stream.

Even children who appear healthy can have dangerous levels of lead.

People can get lead in their body if they:

- ◆ Put their hands or other objects covered with lead dust in their mouths.
- ◆ Eat paint chips or soil that contains lead.
- ◆ Breathe in lead dust (especially during renovations that disturb painted surfaces).

Lead is even more dangerous to children than adults because:

- ◆ Babies and young children often put their hands and other objects in their mouths. These objects can have lead dust on them.
- ◆ Children's growing bodies absorb more lead.
- ◆ Children's brains and nervous systems are more sensitive to the damaging effects of lead.

IMPORTANT!

Lead From Paint, Dust, and Soil Can Be Dangerous If Not Managed Properly

FACT: Lead exposure can harm young children and babies even before they are born.

FACT: Even children that seem healthy can have high levels of lead in their bodies.

FACT: People can get lead in their bodies by breathing or swallowing lead dust, or by eating soil or paint chips with lead in them.

FACT: People have many options for reducing lead hazards. In most cases, lead-based paint that is in good condition is not a hazard.

FACT: Removing lead-based paint improperly can increase the danger to your family.

If you think your home might have lead hazards, read this pamphlet to learn some simple steps to protect your family.

Are You Planning To Buy, Rent, or Renovate a Home Built Before 1978?

Many houses and apartments built before 1978 have paint that contains lead (called lead-based paint). Lead from paint, chips, and dust can pose serious health hazards if not taken care of properly.

By 1996, federal law will require that individuals receive certain information before renting, buying, or renovating pre-1978 housing:

LANDLORDS will have to disclose known information on lead-based paint hazards before leases take effect. Leases will include a federal form about lead-based paint.

SELLERS will have to disclose known information on lead-based paint hazards before selling a house. Sales contracts will include a federal form about lead-based paint in the building. Buyers will have up to 10 days to check for lead hazards.

RENOVATORS will have to give you this pamphlet before starting work.

IF YOU WANT MORE INFORMATION on these requirements, call the National Lead Information Clearinghouse at 1-800-424-LEAD.

This document is in the public domain. It may be reproduced by an individual or organization without permission. Information provided in this booklet is based upon current scientific and technical understanding of the issues presented and is reflective of the jurisdictional boundaries established by the statutes governing the co-authoring agencies. Following the advice given will not necessarily provide complete protection in all situations or against all health hazards that can be caused by lead exposure.

(A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published not later than August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent.)

___B-1: If the rent is being increased above the threshold for presumptively unreasonable rent increases described above, what is the justification for the increase:

4. IF THIS UNIT IS SUBJECT TO ARTICLE 6-A OF THE REAL PROPERTY LAW, KNOWN AS THE NEW YORK STATE GOOD CAUSE EVICTION LAW, AND THIS NOTICE SERVES TO INFORM A TENANT THAT THE LANDLORD IS NOT RENEWING A LEASE, WHAT IS THE GOOD CAUSE FOR NOT RENEWING THE LEASE? (PLEASE MARK ALL APPLICABLE REASONS)

___A. This unit is exempt from Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law, for the reasons stated in response to question 2, above (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED):

___B. The tenant is receiving this notice in connection with a first lease or a renewal lease, so the landlord does not need to check any of the lawful reasons listed below for not renewing a lease under Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED):

___C. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the unit is sublet and the sublessor seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for their own personal use and occupancy (exemption under subdivision 3 of section 214 of the Real Property Law):

___D. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the possession, use or occupancy of the unit is solely incident to employment and the employment is being or has been lawfully terminated (exemption under subdivision 4 of section 214 of the Real Property Law):

___E. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to pay rent due and owing, and the rent due or owing, or any part thereof, did not result from a rent increase which is unreasonable. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published not later than August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph a of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):

___F. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is violating a substantial obligation of their tenancy or breaching any of the landlord's rules and regulations governing the premises, other than the obligation to surrender possession of the premises, and the tenant has failed to cure the violation after written notice that the violation must cease within 10 days of receipt of the written notice. For this good cause to apply, the obligation the tenant violated cannot be an obligation that was imposed for the purpose of circumventing the intent of Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law. The landlord's rules or regulations that the tenant has violated also must be reasonable and have been accepted in writing by the tenant or made a part of the lease at the beginning of the lease term (good cause for eviction under paragraph b of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):

___G. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is either (a) committing or permitting a nuisance on the unit or the premises; (b) maliciously or grossly negligently causing substantial damage to the unit or the premises; (c) interfering with the landlord's, another tenant's, or occupants of the same or an adjacent building or structure's comfort and safety (good cause for eviction under paragraph c of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___H. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant's occupancy of the unit violates law and the landlord is subject to civil or criminal penalties for continuing to let the tenant occupy the unit. For this good cause to apply, a state or municipal agency having jurisdiction must have issued an order requiring the tenant to vacate the unit. No tenant shall be removed from possession of a unit on this basis unless the court finds that the cure of the violation of law requires the removal of the tenant and that the landlord did not, through neglect or deliberate action or failure to act, create the condition necessitating the vacate order. If the landlord does not try to cure the conditions causing the violation of the law, the tenant has the right to pay or secure payment, in a manner satisfactory to the court, to cure the violation. Any tenant expenditures to cure the violation shall be applied against rent owed to the landlord. Even if removal of a tenant is absolutely essential to the tenant's health and safety, the tenant shall be entitled to resume possession at such time as the dangerous conditions have been removed. The tenant also retains the right to bring an action for monetary damages against the landlord or to otherwise compel the landlord to comply with all applicable state or municipal housing codes (good cause for eviction under paragraph d of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___I. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is using or permitting the unit or premises to be used for an illegal purpose (good cause for eviction under paragraph e of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___J. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the unit for the purposes of making necessary repairs or improvements required by law or for the purposes of showing the premises to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee, or other person with a legitimate interest in the premises (good cause for eviction under paragraph f of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___K. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for the landlord's personal use and occupancy as the landlord's principal residence, or for the personal use and occupancy as a principal residence by the landlord's spouse, domestic partner, child, stepchild, parent, step-parent, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, parent-in-law, or sibling-in-law. The landlord can only recover the unit for these purposes if there is no other suitable housing accommodation in the building that is available. Under no circumstances can the landlord recover the unit for these purposes if the tenant is (a) 65 years old or older; or (b) a "disabled person" as defined in subdivision 6 of section 211 of the Real Property Law. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to recover possession of a housing accommodation for the uses described herein by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph g of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___L. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord in good faith seeks to demolish the housing accommodation. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to demolish the housing accommodation by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph h of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___M. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to withdraw the unit from the housing rental market. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to withdraw the unit from the rental housing market by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph i of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___N. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to agree to reasonable changes at lease renewal, including reasonable increases in rent, and the landlord gave written notice of the changes to the lease to the tenant at least 30 days, but no more than 90 days, before the current lease expired. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published by August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph j of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);
