Sublet Policy

REVISED - Effective AUGUST 13, 2002

The following are a set of general guidelines the Board is furnishing for your information. These do not impart upon the tenant-shareholders any rights they otherwise do not have under the proprietary lease. Nor do they restrict the Board from exercising its business judgment in making decisions in the best interests of the Apartment Corporation. Each application for a sale or sublease will be decided on its own merits by the Board pursuant to its obligations under the Proprietary Lease and By-Laws.

1. The Board of Directors has set the following goals to increase the percentage of owner occupied apartments in the building. This count shall include sponsor apartments as non owner-occupied. As of the dates set forth below, the number of owner occupied apartments may not fall below the minimum goal below:

Effective Date	Minimum Goal
1.01 Prior to 12/31/96	68 owner occupied units
1.02 January 1, 1997	70 owner occupied units
1.03 January 1, 1998	73 owner occupied units
1.04 January 1, 1999	77 owner occupied units
1.05 January 1, 2000	81 owner occupied units
1.06 January 1, 2001	84 owner occupied units
1.07 January 1, 2002	88 owner occupied units
1.08 January 1, 2003	92 owner occupied units
1.09 January 1, 2004	95 owner occupied units
1.10 January 1, 2005	100 owner occupied units

Thereafter, the number of owner occupied apartments will be no fewer than 100.

2. Prior to the initial sublet of any apartment to any tenant, the shareholder must obtain permission from the Board of Directors to sublet the apartment. Prior to applying for permission to sublet, the shareholder must have owned the apartment for no less than twenty four (24) months. If the Board of Directors approves the shareholders request to sublet, the shareholder may sublet for one-year term leases only. Each new sub-tenant must complete and submit a sublet application and be approved by the Board of Directors before any sublet is effective. Any renewals with the same tenant shall be at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

- 2.1 In addition to the limitations on subletting set forth above in paragraph 1 and 2 above, no apartment may be sublet for a period in excess of 24 consecutive months. The sublet fee is $2.25 per share for the first year and $4.50 per share for the second year.

3. If the stated goal of owner occupied apartments has not been met by the established date, no further applications for sub-lease will be considered. Shareholders wishing to sublease will be placed on a waiting list. The list will be maintained by the managing agent on a chronological basis; first come / first served. Said list will be reviewed by the Board of Directors at each monthly meeting and be available for review in the office of the managing agent upon reasonable notice. A ONE THOUSAND DOLLAR ($1,000) fully refundable escrow deposit is required as a token of intent by those shareholders requesting placement on the list. This amount will be applied to the sub-lease fee if an applicant is approved, or refunded to the shareholder when the request for sub-lease is withdrawn by the shareholder.
4. When openings for a prospective sublease occur, the shareholder at the top of the list will be given two (2) months to find a sub-lessee. Approval, lease start date, and move in date will take more time. It is estimated that the Board of Directors and the managing agent should be aware when a shareholder will rise to the top of the list approximately six (6) months in advance. The managing agent should be able to predict with some accuracy when a particular shareholder will be able to apply to sublease and when, thereafter, a decision will be made.
5. A prospective sub-lessee's monthly rental payment, plus all other monthly financial obligations, may not exceed 30% of gross income. The income used to qualify the sub-lessee can only be from the sub-lessees named on the lease. Only full time occupants of the apartment; those persons who maintain the apartment as their primary residence, may have their names on the sublease agreement.
6. An admissions package will be furnished to the shareholders to be transmitted to a prospective sub-lessee. This admissions package must be completed with all required documentation, deposits and fees supplied before an interview with the prospective sub-lessee will be scheduled. Prior to scheduling an interview, the Board of Directors must be able to verify all financial information, past residences and references. Copies of the admissions package with all attachments must be received by each member of the Board of Directors an absolute minimum of seven calendar days prior to the scheduled date of an interview.
7. The admissions package must include signed copies of the Federal and State income tax returns for the prior two (2) years with W-2's attached in addition to the application with all items completed and submitted.
8. All prospective occupants must be present for a scheduled interview. A photograph of the prospective occupants will be taken at the time and must be acknowledged by all prospective occupants at that time. Prior to or at a scheduled interview a prospective sub-lessee must acknowledge receipt of the Proprietary Lease, House Rules, Guide for Cooperative Living and Move-In/Move-Out Procedures of Queens Boulevard Tenants Corp. At a scheduled interview a prospective sub-lessee must acknowledge and demonstrate familiarity with the aforementioned documents.

9. For a prospective sub-lease, the shareholder and the sub-lessee must supply Queens Boulevard Tenants Corp. with signed copies of a sublease as approved by Queens Boulevard Tenants Corp. The shareholder and sub-lessee may add to the sublease provided it does not alter the provisions approved by Queens Boulevard Tenants Corp. The form of sublease as required by the Queens Boulevard Tenants Corp. is available for inspection.
10. A prospective sub-lessee will be responsible for the payment of non-refundable fees, to cover the cost of processing and reviewing the application. A prospective sub-lessee will be required to submit a Move-In/Move-Out deposit of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($1,000) with the admissions package. Said deposit will be refunded if the applicant is not approved. If the applicant is approved Move-In/Move-Out procedures must be followed explicitly. Failure to adhere explicitly to the Move-In/Move-Out Procedures will result in the forfeiture of the Move-In/Move-Out Deposit. The cost for repair of any damage to the property of Queens Boulevard Tenants Corp. during move-in/move-out will be deducted from the Move-In/Move-Out Deposit. If the Move-In/Move-Out Deposit is insufficient to cover such repair costs, the purchaser or tenant-shareholder/sublessor will be responsible for such costs which will be added to the maintenance charges assessed against the apartment.
11. If the sublessee vacates the apartment prior to the expiration of the term of the sublet for a reason unrelated to the subtenant's violation of the sublease, the shareholder may apply to the Board for its consent to sublease the apartment to another person for the balance of the term.
12. At all times during a sub-leasing of an apartment, the shareholder and sub-lessee must maintain apartment renters/cooperative owner's insurance insuring for personal injury and property damage in policy limits acceptable to Queens Boulevard Tenants Corp. The tenant-shareholder who wishes to sublet is reminded that the conduct, behavior and activities of the sublessee in the apartment are the responsibility of the tenant-shareholder. If the sublessee violates the proprietary lease, the House Rules and other regulations of the Apartment Corporation, the tenant-shareholder may be held in violation of the proprietary lease and be subject to eviction. The Board reserves all rights under the proprietary lease to commence legal proceedings to terminate the lease and cancel the shares of stock and all other remedies under the lease if the tenant-shareholder or its sub-lessee are in violation of any terms of the lease or House Rules. As a condition to approval of sub-lease, keys to all locks on the entrance door of the apartment must be furnished to the managing agent of Queens Boulevard Tenants Corp. The managing agent shall be entitled to inspect an apartment under sublease. Should it become necessary to initiate legal action against the shareholder or sub-lessee for violation of the House Rules, the shareholder will be responsible for any legal and administrative fees, disbursements, and costs incurred by Queens Boulevard Tenants Corp. in connection with the action. All shareholders who sublet their apartments are required to (install wall to wall) carpeting throughout the apartment, in all rooms, hallways and foyers, except for the kitchen and bathrooms, prior to the effective date of any sublease. Management will require an inspection of the apartment prior to the sublease becoming effective. This carpeting must be in place at the time of inspection.

13. At the time that an application to sub-lease is submitted for consideration, the shareholder will pay to Queens Boulevard Tenants Corp. a sub-lease fee of the greater of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($1,000) or $2.25 per share, for the first year sublet and the greater of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($1,000) or $4.50 per share for the second year sublet. A shareholder who rents a garage space must surrender the license of that garage space at the time that the apartment is sub-leased. Licenses for garage spaces may not be assigned or subleased. Should the shareholder return to the building and request a space, the shareholder will be placed at the bottom of the waiting list.
14. A Sublet deposit of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) must be submitted with the admissions package prior to the scheduling of an interview. This deposit will be returned at the end of the sublease, provided that the sublet policy has not been violated.
15. Any shareholder who sub-leases an apartment without the approval of the Board of Directors will be subject to any and all legal remedies available to the cooperative, including but not limited to:
 1. The cancellation of the Proprietary Lease and shares covering the apartment.
 2. An illegal Sub-lease Fee of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000) together with any and all legal fees and administrative costs incurred by Queens Boulevard Tenants Corp. in connection with any action relating to the illegal sublease.
16. The above revised policies are effective August 13, 2002. Shareholders who are presently subletting their apartments as of August 13, 2002, may renew for one additional year, providing it is with the existing sub-tenant.
17. Both the Sales and Sub-lease policy may be amended at any time by the Board of Directors, with or without notice to the shareholders.

NOTICE DISCLOSING TENANTS' RIGHTS TO REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

Reasonable Accommodations

The New York State Human Rights Law requires housing providers to make reasonable accommodations or modifications to a building or living space to meet the needs of people with disabilities. For example, if you have a physical, mental, or medical impairment, you can ask your housing provider to make the common areas of your building accessible, or to change certain policies to meet your needs.

To request a reasonable accommodation, you should contact your property manager by calling 516-876-4800, or by e-mailing info@kaled.com. You will need to show your housing provider that you have a disability or health problem that interferes with your use of housing, and that your request for accommodation may be necessary to provide you equal access and opportunity to use and enjoy your housing or the amenities and services normally offered by your housing provider.

If you believe that you have been denied a reasonable accommodation for your disability, or that you were denied housing or retaliated against because you requested a reasonable accommodation, you can file a complaint with the New York State Division of Human Rights as described at the end of this notice.

Specifically, if you have a physical, mental, or medical impairment, you can request:

- Permission to change the interior of your housing unit to make it accessible (however, you are required to pay for these modifications, and in the case of a rental your housing provider may require that you restore the unit to its original condition when you move out);
- Changes to your housing provider's rules, policies, practices, or services;
- Changes to common areas of the building so you have an equal opportunity to use the building. The New York State Human Rights Law requires housing providers to pay for reasonable modifications to common use areas.

Examples of reasonable modifications and accommodations that may be requested under the New York State Human Rights Law include:

- If you have a mobility impairment, your housing provider may be required to provide you with a ramp or other reasonable means to permit you to enter and exit the building.
- If your doctor provides documentation that having an animal will assist with your disability, you should be permitted to have the animal in your home despite a "no pet" rule.
- If you need grab bars in your bathroom, you can request permission to install them at your own expense. If your housing was built for first occupancy after March 13, 1991 and the walls need to be reinforced for grab bars, your housing provider must pay for that to be done.
- If you have an impairment that requires a parking space close to your unit, you can request your housing provider to provide you with that parking space, or place you at the top of a waiting list if no adjacent spot is available.
- If you have a visual impairment and require printed notices in an alternative format such as large print font, or need notices to be made available to you electronically, you can request that accommodation from your landlord.

Required Accessibility Standards

All buildings constructed for use after March 13, 1991, are required to meet the following standards:

- Public and common areas must be readily accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities;
- All doors must be sufficiently wide to allow passage by persons in wheelchairs; and
- All multi-family buildings must contain accessible passageways, fixtures, outlets, thermostats, bathrooms, and kitchens.

If you believe that your building does not meet the required accessibility standards, you can file a complaint with the New York State Division of Human Rights.

How to File a Complaint

A complaint must be filed with the Division within one year of the alleged discriminatory act. You can find more information on your rights, and on the procedures for filing a complaint, by going to www.dhr.ny.gov, or by calling 1-888-392-3644 with questions about your rights. You can obtain a complaint form on the website, or one can be e-mailed or mailed to you. You can also call or e-mail a Division regional office. The regional offices are listed on the website.

NEW YORK CITY FIRE DEPARTMENT

2022-2023 Fire and Emergency Preparedness Bulletin
For New York City Apartment Buildings

APARTMENT BUILDING FIRE SAFETY

E-Bike Fire Safety (Fire Safety Hazards Associated with Powered Mobility Devices)

There have been over 140 e-bike and other lithium-ion structural fires in New York City in the first 10½ months of 2022 alone. Six persons died and 140 persons were injured in these fires. Apartments have been severely damaged.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT E-BIKE FIRE SAFETY
(SEE NEXT PAGE)

E-bikes, scooters, hoverboards and other mobility devices powered by lithium-ion batteries have become popular. Many people store and charge them in their apartments. However, the devices' lithium-ion batteries and chargers present serious fire safety hazards.

Immediately stop charging your e-bike and call 911 if you notice:

- Fire or Smoke
- Battery overheating
- Change in battery shape or color
- Battery leaking
- Strange battery smell
- Battery making odd noises

Powered Mobility Device Fire Safety

BUY only e-bikes or other mobility devices that are CERTIFIED by nationally recognized testing laboratory. Look for symbols such as UL, ETL and CSA.

- WHY? The laboratories test these products to make sure they meet industry standards and are safe to operate under normal circumstances.

USE the original battery, power adapter and power cord supplied with the device, or a manufacturer-recommended and/or a testing laboratory-certified replacement.

- NEVER use unapproved batteries/chargers, even if they are much less expensive.
- WHY? Unapproved batteries or chargers may not be designed to work with an e-bike or e-bike battery.
- RESULT: An unapproved battery may overcharge, overheat and catch on fire.

PLUG the e-bike directly into an electrical wall outlet when charging.

- NEVER charge an e-bike or e-bike battery with an extension cord or power strip.
- WHY? Lithium-ion battery charging requires a lot of electrical current, more than most extension cords and power strips can handle.
- RESULT: The extension cord or power cord can overheat and cause a fire.

CHARGE your e-bike or other device in a safe facility, not in your apartment, if possible. Ask your building or employer if they can provide a safe charging and storage facility.

- WHY? Lithium-ion batteries store a lot of energy and when they overheat they release intense energy. Most apartments are unsprinklered and many furnishings and household items are highly combustible.
- RESULT: A fire in your apartment can be devastating.

MAKE SURE you have a way out of the apartment in the event of fire!

- NEVER charge your e-bike next to the apartment entrance door or any other place where it could prevent your escape.

MONITOR your e-bike or e-bike battery when it is being charged.

- READ the manufacturer's charging and storage instructions and follow them.
- NEVER charge the battery overnight or when you are not in the apartment.
- NEVER charge an e-bike or e-bike battery on or near your bed or couch, or close to drapes, papers or other combustible materials.

Examples of reasonable modifications and accommodations that may be requested under the New York State Human Rights Law include:

- If you have a mobility impairment, your housing provider may be required to provide you with a ramp or other reasonable means to permit you to enter and exit the building.
- If your doctor provides documentation that having an animal will assist with your disability, you should be permitted to have the animal in your home despite a "no pet" rule.
- If you need grab bars in your bathroom, you can request permission to install them at your own expense. If your housing was built for first occupancy after March 13, 1991 and the walls need to be reinforced for grab bars, your housing provider must pay for that to be done.
- If you have an impairment that requires a parking space close to your unit, you can request your housing provider to provide you with that parking space, or place you at the top of a waiting list if no adjacent spot is available.
- If you have a visual impairment and require printed notices in an alternative format such as large print font, or need notices to be made available to you electronically, you can request that accommodation from your landlord.

Required Accessibility Standards

All buildings constructed for use after March 13, 1991, are required to meet the following standards:

- Public and common areas must be readily accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities;
- All doors must be sufficiently wide to allow passage by persons in wheelchairs; and
- All multi-family buildings must contain accessible passageways, fixtures, outlets, thermostats, bathrooms, and kitchens.

If you believe that your building does not meet the required accessibility standards, you can file a complaint with the New York State Division of Human Rights.

How to File a Complaint

A complaint must be filed with the Division within one year of the alleged discriminatory act. You can find more information on your rights, and on the procedures for filing a complaint, by going to www.dhr.ny.gov, or by calling 1-888-392-3644 with questions about your rights. You can obtain a complaint form on the website, or one can be e-mailed or mailed to you. You can also call or e-mail a Division regional office. The regional offices are listed on the website.

RE: HOMEOWNER'S INSURANCE

Please be advised that the Board of Directors has updated the House Rules recommending that all Shareholders maintain a homeowners insurance policy.

A homeowner's policy will make certain that your personal property (e.g. furniture, electronics, clothing) is protected in an emergency. A policy will also pay for your alternative housing, should you be displaced.

If you currently have a homeowner's policy, please forward a copy of it to Kaled Management c/o Gabe Turri 7001 Brush Hollow Rd. Westbury, NY 11590. You may elect to send it via email to Gturri@kaled.com.

If you do not currently have a policy, we suggest that you secure one by February 15, 2024.

Thank you in advance for your anticipated cooperation.

The word "tenant" as recited in the notice is solely for identification purposes and not a statement of legal status. (A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published not later than August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent.)

4. IF THIS UNIT IS SUBJECT TO ARTICLE 6-A OF THE REAL PROPERTY LAW, KNOWN AS THE NEW YORK STATE GOOD CAUSE EVICTION LAW, AND THIS NOTICE SERVES TO INFORM A TENANT THAT THE LANDLORD IS NOT RENEWING A LEASE, WHAT IS THE GOOD CAUSE FOR NOT RENEWING THE LEASE? (PLEASE MARK ALL APPLICABLE REASONS)

___A. This unit is exempt from Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law, for the reasons stated in response to question 2, above (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED):

___B. The tenant is receiving this notice in connection with a first lease or a renewal lease, so the landlord does not need to check any of the lawful reasons listed below for not renewing a lease under Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED):

___C. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the unit is sublet and the sublessor seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for their own personal use and occupancy (exemption under subdivision 3 of section 214 of the Real Property Law):

___D. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the possession, use or occupancy of the unit is solely incident to employment and the employment is being or has been lawfully terminated (exemption under subdivision 4 of section 214 of the Real Property Law):

___E. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to pay rent due and owing, and the rent due or owing, or any part thereof, did not result from a rent increase which is unreasonable. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published not later than August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph a of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):

___F. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is violating a substantial obligation of their tenancy or breaching any of the landlord's rules and regulations governing the premises, other than the obligation to surrender possession of the premises, and the tenant has failed to cure the violation after written notice that the violation must cease within 10 days of receipt of the written notice. For this good cause to apply, the obligation the tenant violated cannot be an obligation that was imposed for the purpose of circumventing the intent of Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law. The landlord's rules or regulations that the tenant has violated also must be reasonable and have been accepted in writing by the tenant or made a part of the lease at the beginning of the lease term (good cause for eviction under paragraph b of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):

___G. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is either (a) committing or permitting a nuisance on the unit or the premises; (b) maliciously or grossly negligently causing substantial damage to the unit or the premises; (c) interfering with the landlord's, another tenant's, or occupants of the same or an adjacent building or structure's comfort and safety (good cause for eviction under paragraph c of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___H. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant's occupancy of the unit violates law and the landlord is subject to civil or criminal penalties for continuing to let the tenant occupy the unit. For this good cause to apply, a state or municipal agency having jurisdiction must have issued an order requiring the tenant to vacate the unit. No tenant shall be removed from possession of a unit on this basis unless the court finds that the cure of the violation of law requires the removal of the tenant and that the landlord did not, through neglect or deliberate action or failure to act, create the condition necessitating the vacate order. If the landlord does not try to cure the conditions causing the violation of the law, the tenant has the right to pay or secure payment, in a manner satisfactory to the court, to cure the violation. Any tenant expenditures to cure the violation shall be applied against rent owed to the landlord. Even if removal of a tenant is absolutely essential to the tenant's health and safety, the tenant shall be entitled to resume possession at such time as the dangerous conditions have been removed. The tenant also retains the right to bring an action for monetary damages against the landlord or to otherwise compel the landlord to comply with all applicable state or municipal housing codes (good cause for eviction under paragraph d of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___I. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is using or permitting the unit or premises to be used for an illegal purpose (good cause for eviction under paragraph e of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___J. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the unit for the purposes of making necessary repairs or improvements required by law or for the purposes of showing the premises to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee, or other person with a legitimate interest in the premises (good cause for eviction under paragraph f of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___K. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for the landlord's personal use and occupancy as the landlord's principal residence, or for the personal use and occupancy as a principal residence by the landlord's spouse, domestic partner, child, stepchild, parent, step-parent, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, parent-in-law, or sibling-in-law. The landlord can only recover the unit for these purposes if there is no other suitable housing accommodation in the building that is available. Under no circumstances can the landlord recover the unit for these purposes if the tenant is (a) 65 years old or older; or (b) a "disabled person" as defined in subdivision 6 of section 211 of the Real Property Law. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to recover possession of a housing accommodation for the uses described herein by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph g of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___L. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord in good faith seeks to demolish the housing accommodation. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to demolish the housing accommodation by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph h of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___M. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to withdraw the unit from the housing rental market. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to withdraw the unit from the rental housing market by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph i of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);

___N. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to agree to reasonable changes at lease renewal, including reasonable increases in rent, and the landlord gave written notice of the changes to the lease to the tenant at least 30 days, but no more than 90 days, before the current lease expired. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published by August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph j of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law);
